FLASH!

Some additional notes--

You may have noticed the difference between the month on the masthead of World Watch One (3) and the month in which you are reading it. Well, the Banzai Institute's West Coast Offices depend on the 20th Century Fox Print Shop to print WWI. Since there are currently several television shows shooting on the Fox lot right now, we occasionally lose our turn at the presses to other, more important productions. Hence the time warp between the newsletter's completion and the shipping date. Sigh. Blame it on "L.A. LAW" and "MOONLIGHTING" (and don't gripe within earshot of Perfect Tommy, who's a fan of both!)

Also, we have not been able to persuade Fox to print BBI Directories for all 7,000 Blue Blaze Irregulars. However, if you'd like to receive a Directory, simply complete the form below and return it to the Institute and we'll see that you get your copy. (After all, what's a WWI without a form to fill out?) Write today!

Finally, don't forget to return your postcard to the Walkers in Denver, confirming your desire to remain on the rolls of the Blue Blaze Irregulars. We're not certain when the next WWI will be out, but we want to make sure you get your copy when it's ready. Remember, no matter where you go, let us know.

Happy New Year to all of you!
